

The Nomads

Very little is known about the Nomads and no one really knows, who created them. It is rumored that the Robots were their creators, but there is no proof of this. The Nomads are a very intelligent alien species and try to eliminate mankind. Once they were the "security service" of the Dom Kavash, an ancient Alien race even much more intelligent than the Nomads. But somehow the Dom Kavash disappeared, leaving the Nomads behind. The Nomads then used their Hypergate network to rule the universe and annihilate every other intelligent being they found. The Nomads are a real threat to mankind and the Order, the Monkeys and the Robots call everyone to fight against them for the survival of mankind and every other species
